PLAINTIFFS' RULE 60B MOTION

Both plaintiffs bring this Rule 60b motion, for this case and the other one in which they illegally barred the other plaintiff from filing, for the reasons already articulated on the record for years.

Rule 60 (b) (1)

We know there are countless mistakes, one after another also inadvertence. Singular acts are sufficient let alone cumulatively. Rule 60(b)(4)

We know you lacked jurisdiction, the power, and also subject matter jurisdiction to even take hold of the case, due process was also was lacking. Everything that came from you including the final garbage is null and void. None of this was collateral to the merits. You already had at least one case erased, do it now before they do it.

60 (b)(6)

There is no doubt that there extraordinary circumstances here, as already detailed for years, and obviously none of this was a tinge of the plaintiff's fault. Relief is due.

CONCLUSION

The garbage is null and void and should be vacated.
